

Responsibilities:

Develop application programs in support of VueLogic's client offerings in both online and offline environments working with local as well as offshore teams. Adequately test and document developed code to ensure operational stability and performance. Maybe required to interface with clients on a periodic basis. This position reports to the Chief Technology Officer.

Requirements:

The position requires:

1. a working knowledge of C++ ; Visual Basic; MS Access
2. a working knowledge of object oriented design
3. a working knowledge of testing including creation of test data and test scripts
4. a working knowledge of code documentation both internal and external (flowcharts, run books, etc)
5. a working knowledge of MSOffice
6. programming in Statistical Analysis Software (SAS) considered a plus
7. developing a quick understanding of the business content and problem definition,
8. On site at VueLogic's office during agreed upon work hours; 15-20 hours/week

Student will be required to sign VueLogic's standard employee confidentiality and assignment agreement.

Send resume to HR@VueLogic.com